

Suspensions and Reinstatements FAQ on Gov. Ricketts Executive Order on DMV Requirements

- Do I no longer need to reinstate my license?
 - The executive order only extends valid driver licenses which expired on or after March 1.
 - You are still required to complete all necessary requirements in order to reinstate your license.

- I have met my reinstatement requirements but I am unable to complete all testing. What can I do?
 - Reinstatement requirements and the need for testing will vary by individual.
 - As drive tests are not being conducted until further notice, it may not be possible to obtain your license at this time.

- Can I still pay my citation to the court?
 - Yes, you can pay online at <https://www.nebraska.gov/apps-courts-epayments/public/index>.

- Need to complete driver improvement course for underage point accumulation, or employment driving permit, but the registered course has been cancelled?
 - Contact the agency that has cancelled the course and have them provide proof of registration, your permit/license will not be suspended. Additional time will be allowed for completion of the course.

- I need a driver's license to obtain my vehicle from impound. What can I do?
 - The DMV will issue a reinstatement letter which can be provided to impound lots, and will work with impound lots to resolve any concerns.

- How can I complete a crash report if I am quarantined?
 - Crash reporting can be completed online at dot.nebraska.gov.
 - Alternatively, you can print and mail a Driver's Vehicle Crash Report, found at dot.nebraska.gov.

- I want to pay reinstatement fee but do not want to do so online. What options do I have?
 - Team members are available during regular business hours at 402-471-3985 if you would prefer to pay via telephone. LiveChat is also available on our website at dmv.nebraska.gov.

- Can I wait until after the executive order is lifted to have my ignition interlock inspected?
 - No, the executive order provides an additional two week grace period to allow for inspection but does not waive the requirement.

- Can I still obtain and Ignition Interlock Permit?
 - You may be able to obtain an ignition interlock permit online at dmv.nebraska.gov – some exceptions apply and can be viewed online
