

Vehicle Titling & Registration FAQ on Gov. Ricketts Executive Order on DMV Requirements

- Will I get new tags for my vehicle if I register online?
 - Yes, while many county offices are closed to the public, all are still processing and mailing registrations at this time.

- Do I have to wait until after the executive order is lifted to renew my license plate/registration?
 - No, you can renew your registration online at dmv.nebraska.gov or through the mail to your local county treasurer's office.

- What if I am traveling out of state with expired tags?
 - When traveling out of state with expired tags, we recommend carrying a copy of the Governor's executive order showing they remain valid until 30 days after the executive order is lifted.

- Can I continue to use my in-transit stickers?
 - Yes, the executive order extends the expiration date for in-transit stickers for 30 days until after the executive order is lifted.

- What if I do not have in-transit stickers (purchased privately)?
 - Proof of purchase (properly assigned title and bill of sale), including the purchase date, should be carried in the vehicle.
 - The executive order extends the deadline by which titling and registration must be completed.

- What if I recently moved counties or have out of state license plates?
 - The requirement to register your vehicle in Nebraska still remains; however, the deadline by which this must be completed has been extended until 30 days after the executive order is lifted.
 - County offices closed to walk-in traffic continue to offer services through alternative methods. Please check with your county to determine what options are available.

- What if I recently purchased a vehicle with an out-of-state title and need an inspection?
 - While inspections are still required, the deadline by which these must be completed has been extended by the Governor's executive order until 30 days after the order is lifted.
 - If the vehicle purchase was financed and a lien is required to be noted, contact your county treasurer for assistance.
